

IN SOCIETY.

OGDEN.

Mrs. Charlotte Leavitt celebrated the 74th anniversary of her birth Monday last at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Brown. Mrs. Brown was assisted by Mrs. Fred Chambers, her sister, in the entertainment of the guests, who were Mesdames Kingsford, Rachael Porter, Frankie Brown, Sarah Packard, Henrietta Lohm, Mary Heller, Ella Woodman, Harriett C. Brown, Marjorie H. Brown and Miss Rose Candell. A quiet wedding, but one of much interest to a large circle of friends, was that of Miss Mary Olson and Mr. C. O. Olson, celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alfred Brown of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The home was prettily decorated with masses of sweet peas and clusters of asparagus. The bride's gown was of dainty white French lawn, with small medallion insets. She carried a large bouquet of pure white sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Olson left at noon for San Francisco, where they will remain for an indefinite period.

Miss Ethel Watiss was hostess of a picnic party to Waterfall Tuesday. Miss Mae Sowercroft entertained on Wednesday afternoon at her home, the Lancaster House. Sade entertained a number of friends Friday afternoon. Mrs. John Conlisk left Wednesday for the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Bagley of this city are the guests in Salt Lake of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Croll. Miss Agnes McGuire has gone to California for an indefinite stay, and may visit Honolulu before returning. Miss Bessie Jones left Wednesday for San Francisco, where she will spend a couple of months, the guest of Miss Maude Adler.

Mrs. A. S. Noble and party will be camped at the Hermitage after tomorrow and will remain for the months of July and August at the Hermitage. Mrs. D. N. Schumacher of Idaho Falls is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cochran, at the Hermitage for a few days, after which she will leave for Denver to make her future home. Mrs. C. H. O'Hornett, accompanied by her son, Alvin (Edwards), leaves on Tuesday for Honolulu, H. I., to visit for four months with her daughters, Miss Ida O'Hornett and Mrs. J. E. Cresson, who have been in Honolulu for the past year.

Ogden Clubs.

The third annual outing and field day of the Child Culture club, which took place Friday at Glenwood park, was an occasion of great enjoyment to the members and their friends. Although previous outings have been noted for the pleasure which they rendered, yet this one fairly outdid all former ones. There were fifty seated at the tables, which were spread with a lavish hand, and when Mrs. P. A. Cook, the toastmistress, prepared to call upon the members to respond, she was greeted with hearty goodwill. Mrs. Parley T. Wright, a beautiful and charming mother herself, responded to the toast, "The Mothers." This response was full of wit and humor, albeit, having also some lofty thoughts, which were well adapted to the noble subject which she handled. Mrs. P. R. Christensen, in a most happy vein, responded to the toast, "The Fathers." Her response was keen and bright and showed the brilliancy of her mind. Both toasts were received with bursts of applause.

Perhaps the toast which caused the greatest merriment was that given by Mrs. C. A. Nelson, entitled "Woman." With a graceful and dignified bearing, and an excellent appearance and with inimitable skill, she toasted her fair subject, "Woman." The toast "Contemporary Clubs," which caused prolonged applause, was given by Mrs. Dan Hamer. It is needless to say that the members were surprised to know that Mrs. Hamer had such a knowledge of clubs in general and of the particular club in question. What she did not know of the condition and status of certain clubs is not worth mentioning. How she obtained her knowledge, we are not to venture to state, but suffice it to say, that the laughter which rang around the board showed that she knew whereof she spoke. At last a member was ready to rise and deliver the aims and purposes of the club and giving a little insight into the work of the past year. The day was all that could be desired, the members were in high spirits and for their thanks were due to Mrs. Cook for the able manner in which she performed her duties as toastmistress. All dispersed well pleased with the outing, which had been such a success.

LOGAN.

Mrs. E. J. Thompson of Salt Lake City is visiting in Logan with her son, A. J. Thompson. A very pleasant social function of the week was the reception tendered Mr. M. Merrill, the retiring superintendent of the city schools, by the teachers of the city. It occurred on Tuesday, and very pleasant time was spent. Mr. Merrill was presented with a handsome gold ring as a token of the esteem which he is held by the teachers who worked under him. R. S. Young of Salt Lake City spent the week in Logan. D. F. Collet of Salt Lake City is visiting friends in this city and vicinity. Mrs. A. L. Farrell entertained on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Don C. W. Musser, who is visiting relatives here after a lengthy absence in Manila. Those present were Mesdames Barrett, Martin, W. R. Preston, J. B. G. Thatcher, A. N. Clayton, Tyler, Amussen, A. Mitchell, S. H. Langston, Mae Egan, and Misses Ida Mitchell, Durfee, Selma Hanson, Gladys, Miss Edna Earl and Frank Brock, two well known young people of the city, who were married on Wednesday evening. Judge Hart performing the ceremony, reception was held later at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Preston, in a host of friends of the wedding party. Miss Ida Heath of Salt Lake City is visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Hanks. Grant Giddies of Baker City, Ore., is visiting in Logan with his wife. Former County Clerk John W. Owen returned to his home in Pocatello the first of the week after a visit for a few days with Cache county relatives. Miss Hattie P. Thatcher came down from Battle Mountain, this week, to visit her mother and other relatives in this city, before proceeding to New York for an extended stay. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Leebenstein of Lund, Ida., are visiting in Logan with relatives. A social event of importance this week was the wedding reception of Miss Hannah Smith and W. R. Robbins, two popular young Logan people. The affair was held at the home of the bride's parents, and was a most delightful function. Mr. W. W. Thatcher gave an "at home" this afternoon that was a very pleasant affair. N. W. Kimball returned this week from Boise and Payette, where he visited for some time. Joseph Kimball of Salt Lake City was a local visitor this week.

SUMMERING PLACES.

Provo Lake Resort.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Barney entertained the Misses Bachman, Mrs. Leon Bachman and Miss Taylor at a bass supper at the resort last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loos took a delightful trip to Saratoga Springs in the launch Minnie last Friday evening. J. J. Knight and Sam King drove down to the resort Sunday morning for breakfast. C. F. Decker, Joe Decker and brother spent Sunday at the lake with their families. The Dunn brothers and families were down Friday afternoon for a picnic, bath and rifle on the launch. Mr. and Mrs. Newell Knight and Mr.

and Mrs. John Tairer spent Sunday afternoon at the resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Noid and Mr. and Mrs. Will Bowen and family enjoyed a trip on the Minnie Sunday last. Colonel Ed Loos and family took a trip to Rock Island on the launch. Joe Eisenberger, Lee Ranshoff, Fred Shire, and Jacobs and Joel Priest were down from Salt Lake on a bass fishing trip. The peace and quiet of the resort was rudely interrupted by a tidal wave during the afternoon and the residents somewhat alarmed. The cause is easily explained when it is known that Joe fell overboard in a frantic endeavor to land a bass.

Felix Bachman and friends were at the resort frequently during the week. Alma Smoot and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Cragan were down Sunday. For the week and family spent a day at the lake. Mrs. William H. King was a visitor at the resort Wednesday evening. The following people were at the resort Wednesday evening for a bass supper: Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Rydlich, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore, Will Ward and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Cragan were at the resort Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haveran were visitors at the resort Tuesday evening. Hon. D. D. Houtz and family visited the resort during the week. Numerous launch parties are arranged for the following week.

Upper Fall Resort.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis, W. H. Hurst, Jack Sharp, Jr., of Salt Lake are registered at the resort.

A. E. Peacock of Salt Lake is enjoying a few days' rest at the resort. Willis Spafford, James Twelves, George E. Howe and A. A. Davis have been very successful this week at landing some speckled beauties. Some fine boats have been placed on the pond above the dam, where there is excellent boat riding.

Mrs. J. Myers and children of Salt Lake were rusticating at the resort the past week. Mrs. F. W. O'Connor and Mrs. A. M. Howard of Salt Lake spent last Thursday at Upper Falls.

Dr. Claude Gates and family and Dr. Wilcox and family were registered over Sunday.

Misses Mary and Grace Nelson and E. E. Finch of Salt Lake were among the callers this week.

EUREKA.

Mrs. S. J. Schneider is in Salt Lake. James Aylward left Monday for a trip to Ireland.

Mr. and Mrs. John McChrystal and son Arthur came home Friday night from Salt Lake. Miss Jennie Mason went to Springville Friday to meet the Misses Grace, Jessie and Gertrude Pingree of Iowa, who will be her guests for a portion of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bowen returned Wednesday from the Capital City. George A. Wilson and son George, who have been away for several months, came in from Iowa in the for the Fourth.

Miss Theriot of Provo is the guest of Miss Mabel Ripper. Miss Nan Knowlton of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hanson.

Mrs. G. W. Countryman of Birmingham, Ala., is here to spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. C. Countryman. John R. Hickman has gone to Ogden with the Utah Construction company. Colonel John T. Hayes of Mammoth was in Salt Lake during the week. Irwin Springs spent Sunday at Payson.

S. J. Schneider visited his ranch near Heber City the first of the week. Mrs. Frank Taylor and daughter, Miss Deen, were up from Payson for the week. Mr. and Mrs. Hector Frazer were in Nephi Tuesday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Frazer's daughter, Miss Grace Mills, to Mr. J. Hyde, Jr.

Miss Jane Bowen of Spanish Fork and George Hodins, a popular young merchant of Heber, were married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday. Miss Bowen has been a teacher in the public schools of Eureka for several months. She has many friends who will be glad to welcome her back to the camp.

Miss Mary Haynes is visiting friends in Salt Lake. Eugene Santsch of Castle Gate, and George W. Abel and A. P. Hanson, deputy United States mineral surveyor, of Salt Lake, were in Eureka Tuesday on mining business.

Superintendent Brown of the Centennial-Eureka, Superintendent Turner of the Yankee and Superintendent Ball of the Lower Mammoth, accompanied by their families, and Superintendent Murphy of the Bull-Beck, spent the Fourth in Salt Lake.

A. E. Snow, manager of the May Day, spent the week at the mine. Captain Sowles has gone to Payson for a vacation. James Dunton goes to Salt Lake Monday to take a position with the Salt Lake Route.

Mr. Joseph Wirthlin came out from Salt Lake to spend the Fourth. Miss Ruby Bubb is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brewer of Salt Lake.

BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY. The following thirty-eight juvenile books will be added to the public library Monday morning:

The Perfect Liver Medicine. Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T. writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at the Z. C. M. I. drug department.
